Directions:
Do not get bogged down in correcting grammar and punctuation. Please address all the criteria below for your writing group member’s draft and return that draft to the writer. Budget your time so that you are able to cover all these areas in writing. Verbally discuss only what you think are the most pressing concerns below. Just tell the writer that s/he has serious grammar or punctuation problems and needs to edit very carefully on the final draft before submitting it.

ESSAY STRUCTURE CHECKLIST (Passing essays will accomplish the first 12 criteria)  YES  NO

1. The introductory ¶ uses 3-4 sentences that summarize what the ITW is about.
2. The introductory ¶ correctly introduces Jon Krakauer and his book.
3. The introductory ¶ correctly introduces Henry David Thoreau and his essay(s).
4. The introductory ¶ clearly establishes the purpose of the essay in the thesis statement, which is that it will prove a variety of Thoreau’s ideals/philosophies influenced McCandless.
5. The thesis is clearly and precisely stated in the last sentence of the introductory ¶.
6. The thesis uses all three key words: McCandless, Thoreau, and influence.
7. Each MB ¶ begins with a topic sentence that echoes the three key words from the thesis.
8. Each topic sentence includes a paraphrase of a philosophical statement from Thoreau.
9. After the topic sentence, a direct quotation from one of Thoreau’s essays appears.
10. Each main body ¶ cites & explains at least two (2) specific examples from the text.
11. Each main body ¶ ends with a closing or concluding sentence.
12. All main body ¶s are unified (do not stray from the topic sentence) and develop only the stated criteria. (List ¶s which need work on unity: ______________________.)
13. Each main body ¶ (except for the first) employs a transitional sentence.
14. The parenthetical notations have errors and need to be fixed.
15. The Works Cited page uses correct MLA format (hanging ¶s, alphabetized, double-spaced, etc.)
16. The writer needs to edit carefully spelling and typos in the next draft.
17. The essay needs work in the area of punctuation and grammar.

18. A) Evaluate whether the thesis is forceful and assertive. Explain.

B) Show how the writer could reword the thesis for clarity and precision—even if you think it’s pretty good.

19. Find the ¶s that need the most work on coherency. (orderly sequence of sentences, no jumbled ideas)

20. List the main body ¶s that need more concrete evidence from the ITW? (Read closely; be critical here.)

21. Which passage(s) (specify ¶s) are most clear to you? Explain why.

22. Describe how effective the arrangement of the kinds of influences is. Would it be better to use ascending order of importance or descending order of importance?

23. Identify influences that are particularly strong. What influences do you recommend deleting because they are especially weak.
